What is the news from Maine? Not a Democrat elected to office.

If you want to see a Democrat hang his head and look blue, ask him if he has heard from Maine.

The Cornfield districts in Maine do not want a change. They voted for the success of the Republican party.

General Hancock to Marshall Jewell: Let us down easy on Maine. I was joking in my congratulatory telegram to Plaisant.

The Democrats have a hard time of it trying to keep their courage by whistling. A majority of the votes is better than a whistle to give encouragement.

Mr. Tilden will never concede the friends in Maine who got him to give $10,000 to beat Reed for Congress. He won't throw away any more money on Maine.

When Garfield opens his mouth to make a speech he never makes a blunder. When Hancock undertakes to say anything he gets his foot in it, and his papers have to explain for him.

It is said that Senator Cameron has gone to California on a visit. No man of Mr. Cameron's ability for the stump should go pleasure seeking at this particular time. It is a time for hard work, and this work should be done now.

The Lincoln monument at Springfield, Illinois will soon be completed. The last two models of the groups necessary to complete it were shipped from Florence, Italy, this week. The monument when completed will have cost about $180,000.

Judge Cothern has been nominated for Congress by the Democrats in the Third district. Judge Cothern ran for a seat on the Supreme bench a year ago last spring, and was beaten by 33,000 majority. He will never get anything but his eye on a seat in Congress.

Congressman Williams is now in Ohio and doing good campaign work. On Wednesday he received a telegram from General Garfield inviting him to Mentor, which he accepted. He speaks at Tiffin, Ohio, to-night, Sandusky, Saturday night, and Waukegan on Monday night.

Mr. A. M. Thomson, now connected with the Chicago Tribune, will soon prepare an article for that paper on the Senatorial timber in this State. He will pick up some fifteen or twenty prominent Republicans and show the public that they are fit men for the United States Senate.

The sober sentiment of this country is with the Republican party, and in November that sentiment will settle two questions: (1) that the government shall not be turned over to Confederate hands; and (2) that there shall not be a change from prosperity and confidence to adversity and doubt.

During the two years of President Hayes' administration the loss per one thousand dollars in disbursing the public funds amounts to one-eighth of one per cent. Such a remarkable degree of economy is as surprising as it is honorable. It is too economical for the Democrats, and they want a change.

When the news came from Maine that the Greenbackers had elected their Governor, the stocks in the market declined and were dull; but when the news came that they rose again to the old figure, there is nothing that would disturb the business of the country so much as a Democratic-Greenback-Confederate victory.

The further the investigation is pushed regarding the operations of William H. English with the selling of the homes of poor people, the more the country hears of the unlimited greed of this modern Shylock. He has not only foreclosed on over 300 persons during the last five years, but he adopted another plan of filling his barrel. He was president of the Citizens' Street Railway company of Indianapolis. Under his management it was a close corporation, and no man could get work who did not rent a house of English. It mattered nothing whether he was married or single, his name could never be placed on the pay-roll of the street car company until it was registered upon the rent-roll of Mr. English. In this way he reaped his wealth, and for his wealth he was placed on the Democratic National ticket.

Twenty-five years ago this republic was wearing a triple chain of bondage. Long familiarity with traffic in the bodies and souls of men had paralyzed the consciences of a majority of our people. The doctrine of State Sovereignty had shocked and weakened the nobler and most beneficent powers of the National Government, and the grasping power of slavery was seizing the original territories of the West and dragging them into the den of eternal bondage. At that crisis the Republican party was born. It drew its first inspiration from the fire of liberty which God has lighted in every man's heart, and which all the powers of ignorance and tyranny can never wholly extinguish. The Republican party came to deliver and save the republic. It entered the arena when the beleaguered and assailed territories were struggling for freedom, and drew around them the sacred circle of liberty, which the demon of slavery has never dared to gross. It made them free forever.—Garfield's speech nominating Sherman.

There were some who thought to ridicule the new road from Janesville to Afion by calling it the "dub-bill line," the Patch, Monterey, and Afion branch, and all such names tending to degrade the character of the road. The road was built in a few weeks' time, well equipped, and is now in good running order. Now let us see what it is doing, and whether or not it is of any account to the business interests of Janesville. One day last week there were as many as seventy-five loaded cars run over the road, and each day this week there have been from thirty to forty loaded cars. Our millers and grain dealers are enabled by the Afion branch to get their Minnesota wheat much quicker than by the old route, and what is better at four dollars a car less than before. The reason of this is by running the cars from the Minnesota country to Janesville by the way of Afion, instead of by the way of Harvard, sixty-two miles are saved, and the four dollars per car. Shippers from Janesville to the Northwest over the Madison division of the Northwestern, are enabled to obtain rates at the same figures. This is an important item and should be the source of appreciation on the part of the citizens of Janesville, of the efforts of the Northwestern to give them cheaper freights from and to the Northwest.

The Democrats have often "pointed with pride" to their record while in possession of the government in "good old Democratic days." These days have not been forgotten, and never will be so long as the history of the country is read. Every chapter in the history of the Democratic party is marked with carelessness, dishonesty and treason. When it had possession of the government forty years ago it was a profligate party, and during the administrations of Andrew Jackson and Martin Van Buren, committed the most bare-faced robberies. The facts of those days, especially from 1829 to 1841, are surprising, and make us appreciate the fact that for the past twenty years we have been living under the most economical administrations ever known in this country. In 1842, a committee from the House of Representatives began the investigation of the corruption and extravagance of officials in high places, and the committee brought forth some astonishing facts. In less than four years, the New Orleans mint had cost $554,000. Other mints cost proportionately as much. The officers in charge of them attempted to outdo the luxury of the crowned heads of Europe. They wasted public money without a tinge of remorse, and revelled in pleasure and comfort bought at the expense of the tax-payers which would make an honest man blush with shame.

For instance, under Van Buren's administration, the kind of simplicity and economy practiced at the New Orleans mint were a curiosity in their way. A report says that coal and wood of all kinds were apparently bought in quantities which would exhaust the mines and destroy the forests. The employees were furnished with $10 each; with clock, for which $70 was paid; orange trees, pear trees, cedar trees, and flowers were continually consuming hundreds of dollars; a man who went to Philadelphia to buy $400 worth of goods was paid $300 for traveling expenses; bath-houses and the most costly furniture exhausted many thousands of dollars; carpenters and masons were paid $10 per day, and two masons were allowed $250 for expenses from Baltimore, and $100 for expenses from Philadelphia, and $100 for expenses from New York, and $100 for expenses from London, and $100 for expenses from Paris, and $100 for expenses from Rome, and $100 for expenses from Constantinople, and $100 for expenses from Calcutta, and $100 for expenses from Bombay, and $100 for expenses from BRIEFLETS.

—Temple of Honor to-night.

—September now begins to behave itself.

—Last evening was a hard one on the front gates.

—Regular meeting of the A. O. U. W., this evening.

—The postoffice at Wirt has been discontinued, the death occurring to-day.

—The Bower City Band will have an old-time rehearsal, this evening, under the directorship of D. D. Bennett, Friends of the band are cordially invited.

—The new passenger and baggage car to be used on the Afton road arrived last evening. It is a very neat, attractive and comfortable coach, well made, well painted, and provided with enjoyable seatings for the passengers.

—The bids for carrying the mail between the postoffice and the depot have been opened in Washington, and the contract given to D. F. Sullivan, who is in F. C. Cook's jewelry store. He will commence on his contract on the first of October.

—Arrangements are being made for a donation and dance for the benefit of Mrs. Whalen, Monday evening next at Apollo hall. Anderson's band is to furnish the music, and a good time is promised. The tickets are placed at fifty cents, and the proceeds are for one who is a worthy object of liberality.

—Strayed or stolen—from the Corn Exchange—five or six leading Democrats, who until yesterday sat around basking in the sunshine of their own smiles, and hailing everybody with a grinning inquiry "Have you heard from Maine?" It is feared that they have heard too much from Maine, and that they have wandered away in a fit of despondency.

—The new Methodist church at Edgerton is to be dedicated next Tuesday. Rev. Dr. Huntley is to preach in the morning, and will be assisted in the dedicatory service by Rev. A. J. Mead, of this city. Special invitations have been issued for all the former pastors of the church to be present, and some one of them will probably preach in the evening.

—There's nothing like giving a woman her rights. That's what he thought evidently as he plodded along down the street leading a poodle dog, while the woman was dragging a couple of valises, a hand box, a gossamer, a parasol, and a basket of peaches. That woman doubtless realized that all a woman needs to do is to assert her God-given rights of equality with man, and take them.

—Burglars seem to be prowling about the country adjacent to Janesville, but have rather neglected this city. They have recently visited Milton, and now come a report from Beloit that George Janvin's rooms over his meat market, had been entered and money taken from his pants pockets, while he slept. With these warnings it is well for Janesville folk to keep close watch of the bolts and bars.

—Bridget Hanahan had a jury trial before Justice Nolan day before yesterday, the complaint against her being that she assaulted her neighbor's little daughter, the fuss being about some tarkeys. The jury disagreed. Yesterday the case was tried again with another jury, and the whole day was consumed, but a verdict was finally reached, Bridget being found guilty, and called upon to pay $1 and costs. The costs were over $30, but she stepped up this morning and settled the bill like a little woman.

—E. B. Heinstreet has received from Chicago a handsomely framed certificate of his membership in the Wisconsin Pharmaceutical Association, in the organization of which he has been so active. At the last meeting of the Association a committee consisting of E. B. Stuart, and L. A. Lange, of Chicago, were appointed to get certificates of membership printed, and the very first parchment issued from the press, they filled up with Heinstreet's name, framed it, and sent it to him with their compliments. It's an impressive looking document.

—The Merry Club has perfected its reorganization for the coming season, and has decided to have its opening party on the first Wednesday evening in October, and to have similar parties every Wednesday evening during the season. Harry Anderson's band has been engaged, and negotiations are now pending with Prof. Severance to secure his services for the season. The membership is limited to fifty couples, and arrangements are being made to render the coming series even more merry than that which was so heartily enjoyed last season.

—In another column will be found some interesting reading matter concerning the Star Clothing house. Its location at the corner of Main and Milwaukee streets, is convenient, and the stock and prices are such as will command attention. Somebody's fall stock of ready-made clothing, hats, caps and gents' furnishing goods is large and varied, and in the merchant tailoring department, which is under the supervision of J. M. Kniff, is to be found a pleasing variety of cloth and styles, so that the customer is sure to find something which will strike him as "just the thing" he wants. The Star Clothing house is liberally patronized now, but enterprise, good goods, and low prices will steadily increase it. This fall the stock is remarkably large, and at the present prices there is little excuse for not having good clothes. Somebody extends a cordial invitation to everybody and all their relatives to drop in and examine his stock for themselves.

THE GALLANT GUARDS.

A Surprise on Quartermaster Judd. The Drill for the Prize Medal.

Last evening there was an unusually interesting meeting of the Janesville Guards. The first incident out of the usual order was a surprise on Thor Judd, who was called to the front, and was presented with an elegant medal, by the company, who found a spokesman in J. B. Doe, Jr. The presentation speech was a sprightly one, and consisted of a brief rehearsal of the many acts which had placed the company under lasting obligations to the recipient of the gift, for his faithfulness and activity in performing the duties of his office as Quartermaster. On the occasion of the encampment at Milwaukee and Freeport, and again at Rockford, the company on its arrival had always found everything in the best possible condition for their comfort and convenience, and during their stay at each of these places they had been remarkably well cared for in every respect. For this they were under special obligations to Quartermaster Sergt. Judd, and this taken was an expression of their appreciation.

The surprised Quartermaster was completely taken aback, but rallied sufficiently to thank the donors, and to express his feeling that nothing was too good for the Guards, and as long as he was Quartermaster he should endeavor to get the best of everything for them.

The medal thus presented is a beauty. It consists of a solid gold bar, bearing the words "Janesville Guards," and the letters "Q. M.," while pendant from this is a solid gold letter "A," that being the letter of the company. Webb & Hall were the makers, and did their work well.

After this presentation came the prize drill in which about thirty participated. The judges were Capt. Smith, Lieut. Newman, Sergt. Major Hand and Sergt. McLean. The orders were given by Lieut. Glass. It was the best drill yet had, and for a long time there was not a break nor a miss, but at last the number got gradually reduced to four—Charles Wintermute, J. B. Doe, George Grove, and Emmett McGowan. The movements were ordered by count, and it was on this that the misses were made, the boys being in too much of a hurry and not waiting for the officers to give the count. George Grove was at last left standing alone and to him Lieutenant Glass gave the medal. This makes the second time he has won it, and under the rule he has to win it but once more in order to gain permanent possession of it. In the first drill C. C. McLean won, in the second Charles Wintermute, in the third George Grove, in the fourth J. B. Doe, Jr., and now George wins, he being the first to win in two drills.

SAFELY MOORED.

Last evening there was a quiet but merry wedding at the home of Mrs. Dorcas Moore, on Academy street, the contracting parties being her daughter, Miss Katie R. Moore, and Mr. James C. Moore. About twenty-five friends witnessed the ceremony which was performed by Rev. T. P. Sawin. The usual festivities of such a merry mating were indulged in, and the hearty congratulations and well wishes of those present, will be echoed by the many friends of both parties. Among the gifts were: One hundred dollars from Obid Frary; bed-room suit from J. C. Moore; table cloth and napkins, Mrs. L. S. Moore; camp rocking-chair, Mrs. Dickerman and family; napkins, Mrs. Florence Louden; pair of vases, Miss Nellie B. Carle; silver butter dish, Mr. and Mrs. James Ellis; vase, Mr. and Mrs. Root; motto, Miss Julia Root; Longfellow poems, Mr. and Mrs. James Helms; motto, Walter Helms; bedspread, handkerchiefs, gloves and vase, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Denniston; lace tie, Mrs. J. A. Tice, brush and comb, Miss A. Moore; ten dollars from O. D. Frary, Chicago.

The joyous bridegroom came to this city from Middletown, New York, and since his coming here, has won many friends. He "runs with the boys" of No. 2 Engine Company, and is also Drum Major of the Bower City Band, and is an active and popular young man. The bride has lived here for years, and is widely known here, and has many warm friends.

B. B. Eldredge's mare Calamus won further honors in Chicago yesterday. In the race for the 2:30 class the starters were Calamus, Mary Miller, J. W. Thomas, Headlight and Commodore Sweetzer. BETHANY, ONTARIO.

GENTLEMEN.—I feel it my duty to say a few words in regard to the great benefit I have received from the use of one of the wonders of the world, that is, Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. I was one of the greatest sufferers for about fifteen months with a disease of my ear similar to ulcers, causing entire deafness. I tried everything first, but without relief. As a last resort, I tried the Electric Oil, and in ten minutes found relief. I continued using it, and in a short time my ear was cured and hearing completely restored.

I have used this wonderful healer successfully in cases of inflammation of the lungs, sore throat, coughs and colds, cuts and bruises, &c.; in fact it is our family medicine.

Yours truly,

Mrs. W. S. LANG.

THE JACK TRIAL.

The trial of Mrs. Mack, for the murder of her husband, is now fairly underway at Jefferson. Sheriff Couse took yesterday brought from Wauwau Frank Dickerson and Steve Snell, who are to be witnesses for the prosecution. J. Watson, the hired boy on the Mack farm, was sworn yesterday afternoon and told the same story as on the trial in this city, it being almost a verbatim repetition of his testimony here.

Dr. Bell, of Beloit, was the second witness, and he, too, repeated the testimony given by him upon the previous trial.

Coughs.

"Frary's Branchial Trachea" are used with advantage to alleviate Coughs, Sore Throat, Hoarseness and Bronchitis. For thirty years these Tracheas have been in use, with annually increasing favor. They are not new and untried, but having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few simple remedies of the age.

"The Trachea," "Frary's Branchial Trachea," act directly on the organs of the voice. They have an extraordinary effect in all disorders of the throat and larynx, restoring a healthy tone when relaxed, either from cold or over-exertion of the voice, and produce a clear and distinct pronunciation. Speeches and Songs find the Tracheas useful.

A Cough, Cold, Catarrh or Sore Throat requires immediate attention, as neglect often results in some incurable Lung Disease. "Frary's Branchial Trachea" will almost invariably give relief. Imitations are offered for sale, many of which are injurious. The genuine "Frary's Branchial Trachea" are sold only in bottles.
